

---

Wage Subsidy Scheme (WSS)

Employee Consent To Information Sharing

is to apply for the COVID-19 Wage Subsidy August 2021 and you, will be included as an employee in the application form.

In order for to be entitled to the subsidy, there is a requirement that the employees named in the application have to provide their consent for to share information regarding them with Ministry of Social Development (MSD).

Specifically, we require you to provide consent to the following matters:

- the information about you included in the application being provided to MSD
- providing MSD with any further information about you required in order for MSD to make decisions about the application or applications for other COVID-19 support, and to review or audit any subsidy or other COVID-19 support that is granted and how any subsidy or other COVID-19 support is paid to employees
- advising MSD if you end your employment relationship with us at a time when you are receiving a subsidy with respect to you
- Other agencies (including non-government agencies) providing information about you to MSD and its auditors, to the extent necessary in order for MSD to make decisions about our application or applications for other COVID-19 support, and to review or audit any subsidy or other COVID-19 support that is granted to us and how any subsidy or other COVID-19 support is paid to employees
- the information about you in the application being used by MSD to make decisions about our application or applications for other COVID-19 support, and to review or audit any subsidy or other COVID-19 support that is granted and how any subsidy or other COVID-19 support granted is paid to employees
- the information about you in the application being shared by MSD with other agencies (including non-government agencies) to the extent necessary in order for MSD and its auditors to undertake analysis, in order to enable MSD to make decisions about our application or applications for other COVID-19 support, and to review or audit any subsidy or other COVID-19 support that is granted and how any subsidy or other COVID-19 support granted is paid to employees
- the information about you in the application being used by MSD to make decisions about other assistance and entitlements to the extent our application and any subsidy granted is relevant to you

I, , consent to the above information about me being shared.

Signed

Date